To check the Material Master and Minimum Order Quantity (MOQ), navigate to Product information management > Products > Released products. This list displays all available Gurit products at the production site, and you can refine it using the search box based on criteria like Item number or Product name. Select the desired product by clicking on its code to access its details. Then, go to Manage Inventory and choose Default order settings to view the Inventory and Sales MOQ information.